

6

JUNE, 1998

Horticulture Review

"THE VOICE OF LANDSCAPE ONTARIO"

Giving Mother Nature a helping hand

Operating an organic landscaping business in Orillia has provided Glenda Bosley with a wide range of challenges and opportunities. Her knack of combining a genuine love of plants with a concern for the environment has resulted in a unique company that provides an uncommon service. See the profile on Roots & Shoots by Sarah Willis beginning on page 4.

REGULAR FEATURES

Profile.....	4
Retail Report.....	6
Safety Notes.....	9
Ask the Expert.....	10
OMAFRA Bulletin.....	11
Inside L.O.....	14
Industry News.....	23
Coming Events.....	28
New Products.....	29
Book Review.....	30
Classified Ads.....	32
Commentary.....	34

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

Are you up to the planting challenge? In our ongoing lessons for the CNTA Retail Certification tests Terry Murphy talks about the Planting Station. See page 6.

The wacky weather certainly has us guessing this spring. The OMAFRA Bulletin is designed to help take some of the guesswork out of anticipating and identifying plant problems. See page 11.

This summer, coming to a lawn near you. It's not Godzilla, it's the larvae of the European Crane Fly. While this insect is a turf pest on both coasts, it has never been seen before in Ontario. Pam Charbonneau is asking turf professionals to keep their eyes peeled this summer. See the survey on page 23.